Hereby we, the undersigned, agree that the Afrikaans Christian Church of New Zealand (ACK) may collect and securely hold information about each of the undersigned signatories. The ACK will make every effort to keep personal details about us up to date and confidential. We may access and correct this information under the Privacy Act 1993.

The ACK may use this information to:

- Contact us for any activities or services of the ACK.
- Administer, manage and monitor our membership of the ACK or services provided to us.
- Conduct market research, data processing and statistical analysis; and
- Unless we disagree in writing, provide us with information about facilities, meetings or services including selected third party products of services.

The ACK may disclose the information to its members, agents or contractors for the above purposes. We agree that any form of communication may be used to communicate any of above with us including mail, email, fax, telephone or mobile phone messages. This agreement will be in force until we specifically cancel it in writing with the appointed administrator of the ACK at that time. We agree that any form of communication may be used to communicate any of above with us including mail, email, fax, telephone or mobile phone messages. This agreement will be in force until we specifically cancel it in writing with the appointed administrator of the ACK at that time.
